

WHAT IS CREDIT TRANSFER AND DOES IT APPLY TO ME?

Credit Transfer is the awarding of competency to a student as a result of their having been awarded competency for that Unit of Competency (or its equivalent) either with iscd or another Registered Training Organisation within the previous 5 years.

HOW TO COMPLETE YOUR APPLICATION

STEP 1: Please select the Units of Competency that you seek Credit Transfer for.

STEP 2: Please indicate the supporting evidence you are providing.

STEP 3: Please sign the application and attach all supporting documentation, including:

- Certified copies of Certificates and Transcript of Results. Copies to be certified by a Justice of the Peace, Bank Officer, Teacher, Police Officer, Officer of the Court, Solicitor or Barrister, Pharmacist, or anyone as listed
- Documents in a foreign language will need to be officially translated to English.

Email your application to: studentsupport@iscd.edu.au

HOW WILL MY APPLICATION BE ASSESSED?

All evidence provided will be verified for authenticity with the provider listed on the Certificate or Transcript of Results.

IS THERE A COST FOR CREDIT TRANSFER?

No, there is no cost. RTO's are not permitted to charge a fee for Credit Transfer except where an entire qualification is being credited. Then an administration fee for the issuance of the qualification will be charged.

PART 1: UNITS OF COMPETENCY

We need to be certain you can demonstrate the performance criteria required to achieve that full Unit of Competency. You will be assessed ONLY on the information you provide in the attached supporting documentation so we recommend you supply as much information as you have available, including a portfolio work, relevant work experience and previous studies you are relevant where the Statement of Attainment does not have the exact same unit code.
